

Economist and Writer Ed Lotterman
presents the Real World Economics Lecture Series

Issues, Choices and Trade-Offs in Election 2008

Even a real-world economist can't tell you who is the best candidate for president or Congress. But he can help you identify the key issues we face and the key questions we should ask in deciding which candidate to support.

Come hear Pioneer Press columnist Ed Lotterman explore national issues in five public lectures keyed to the 2008 election.

April 7 Taxes and the Federal Budget

April 21 Energy and the Environment

May 12 Stimulus Plans and "the Recession"

May 19 Social Security and Baby Boomer Retirement

June 2 Health Care

All lectures begin at 7:30 pm at the History Theatre, 30 East Tenth Street in downtown Saint Paul (map/directions at www.historytheatre.com). This is not the Minnesota History Center!
